Visa procedure

For French visa: non-European students need to apply to a VLS-TS. ICN Business School adheres to the CEF (Centre pour les Etudes en France) convention. Students who live in a country subject to the Etudes en France procedure must follow this procedure in order to obtain their visa. More information on www.campusfrance.org/ and www.france-visas.gouv.fr/en/web/france-visas/student. Students who do not live in one of these countries and need a visa to come study in France must contact the French consular authorities in their home country.

For German visa: All non-EU students have to apply for the appropriate German study visa at the German Embassy or Consulate responsible for their place of residence, no later than 3 months before their prospective arrival date. For further information on the application procedure: <https://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/en/visa-service/buergerservice/fag/08-studentenvisum/606690> & regulations <https://www.study-in-germany.de/en/plan-your-studies/requirements/visa/>.

Tuitions fees

If your application is accepted, your admission will only be confirmed once you have paid the deposit of €4,000 (non-refundable, except in case of not obtaining the visa or the previous degree). This deposit confirms the candidate's motivation to join ICN Business School and gives a fair treatment to all students who are eligible for our school but who are refused due to the lack of available places.

After receiving this deposit, we will send you the official admission letter with which you can begin the visa application.

The remaining tuition fees can be paid in one or three instalments in the following 3 months after the beginning of the academic year.
